

About Theology Camp

Theology Camp began with a desire to deepen the theological education of teenagers in 2002. Our desire is to see teens grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ through their camp experience.

What to Expect

You can expect a great speaker, a great facility, lots of time in God's Word, and lots of fellowship and laughing together. You cannot get much better than Logan Valley Christian Retreat in Ellington, MO. With 40 acres filled with just about anything you might want to do, you are sure never be bored.

What to Bring

- Bible, pen, & notebook
- Bedding (sleeping bag and pillow)
- Towels (for showers & waterslide)
- Clothes appropriate for play and clothes for chapel. (See registration forms for dress code and expectations)
- Insect repellent and sunscreen
- Be sure to read the camp guidelines for more information.

Our Speaker

Jim Orrick, Ph.D., is Pastor of Bullitt Lick Baptist Church and the author of Mere Calvinism and Seven Thoughts that Every Christian Ought to Think Every Day.

Logan Valley Christian Retreat has everything you could want in a summer camp experience. With a waterslide, creek for exploring and swimming, zip line, low and high ropes course, basketball, volleyball, and disc golf, there will always be something fun in store!

General Camp Information

COST:

$260 per person

Includes all meals, lodging, float trip & camp shirt

Limited scholarships available

PLACE:

Logan Valley Christian Retreat
Ellington, MO

WHO:

Youth entering grade 7 through graduating high school seniors

REGISTRATION:

Registration forms will be available at <https://fbcfenton.com/theology-camp>
on March 1.

Registration is due by May 29, 2024.

QUESTIONS?

Call 636-343-1132 or email
terry.coker@fbcfenton.com

